

Congresswoman McCollum briefly highlights the importance of action on behalf of the millions of women and children losing their lives due to prenatal complications and lack of proper health care.